

The Loder Valley

To protect the natural wildlife habitats in the Loder Valley, entry is restricted to 50 visitors each day. Book in on the day at the Visitor Centre.

Map available at ticket desk

Kew at Wakehurst

PLANTS PEOPLE POSSIBILITIES

- Shelter/Hide
 - View point
 - Picnic tables
 - Baby changing facilities
 - Snacks and drinks
 - Oak signposts
 - Guided walks start from Carriage Ring
 - Toilets
- Paths
- Made-up and suitable for wheelchairs
 - Gravel or bark, uneven in places
 - Grass paths
 - Steep paths
- Seasonal Highlights

To help you find your way, oak signposts at several key locations are numbered to correspond to their position on this map. The route around Wakehurst is approximately 3.6km (2.3 miles). There are dramatic changes in height amounting to some 70 metres (225 feet). The steep paths are marked in red.

B2028 Ardingly and Haywards Heath

