

How to book Children's Garden tickets

The Children's Garden is designed for children aged 2-12 years old.

Access to the Children's Garden is free, but tickets for a 60-minute session must be booked in advance.

Tickets are only required for children (an adult supervisor is included with each child ticket).

Please ensure when booking your Children's Garden session that it does not clash with your booked teaching sessions.

How to book Children's Garden tickets

Tickets can be booked via the Kew Gardens website.

1. Scroll to the bottom of the page and select 'All Other Visitors – Book Tickets'

Specific buildings and structures, such as the Glasshouse and Galleries, will be closed in line with government guidance during the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. Please check our planned closures before your visit to avoid disappointment.

Please follow government advice. If you or your guest has symptoms of COVID-19 or are self-isolating you must not visit the Gardens.

When booking remember:

- You can only visit an outdoor public place with the people you live with, with your support bubble or, when on your own, with one person from another household
- You will have 45 minutes from your chosen time slot to enter the Gardens; once you're inside, stay as long as you like.
- Please do not arrive before the time on your ticket.
- Members must bring ID and membership card, or proof of membership number (like an email).
- Blue Light Card ticket holders must bring their Blue Light Card.

Getting there:

- Under the recent lockdown, you may only leave your home for limited reasons, including for outdoor exercise. This should be done locally e.g. your town, village or part of the city where you live. Please check gov.uk for further guidance, including rules around public transport and car sharing.
- Walk, cycle or drive; plan your trip to Kew Gardens
- Victoria Gate, Elizabeth Gate, Brentford Gate and Lion Gate are operating as usual.
- Parking on Kew Road is entirely prohibited.

However, the system requires you to select a time before you can proceed, so please choose any time prior to when you want Children’s Garden tickets (the times shown as available for the Children’s Garden will only be for those slots after the ‘entrance time’ that you select).
